Madrid, September 25, N. S.

THEIR Catholick Majeſties are in perfect Health at St. Ildefonſo, and the Marqueſs de Grimaldo is there much better of his late Indiſpoſition, though not quite recovered. The Chevalier Eon is ſet out from hence for London, by the Way of Bilboa. Orders are ſent to Cadiz for the delivering out to the Merchants their Share of the Money which came by the Flota lately arrived at that Port from New-Spain, without obliging them to carry it into the Mint for the re-coining of the ſame.

Turin, Oct. 4, N. S. The great Heats having conſiderably abated, his Sardinian Majeſty and the Prince began a few Days ago to hunt and ſhoot in the Neighbourhood of the Veneria. Several Perſons have been attacked with malignant Fevers and other Diſtempers, occaſioned by a ſcorching Summer, and exceſſive Drought: And ſome Perſons of Quality dying laſt Week after a ſhort Indiſpoſition, and many more being ill, it is apprehended the Autumn and Winter will prove very ſickly. It is not yet declared whether the Court is to make any Alteration in the preſent Mourning on Account of the King of Spain's Death. The Snows having already begun to fall upon the Mountains, the Court propoſes to leave Rivoli To-Day, and will paſs the remaining part of the Autumn at the Veneria. The Biſhop of Alexandria arrived here a few Days ago; and ſeveral other Biſhops are alſo expected, to make their Compliments to the Princeſs of Piedmont on her Marriage. The Regiment of Piedmont commanded by his Royal Highneſs the Prince, being removed from their Quarters at Caſal, marched Yeſterday Morning to Colegno, three Miles from hence, where they are to encamp for about 8 or 10 Days, and will afterwards go to their Winter Quarters at Foſſano.

Copenhagen, Sept. 30, N. S. Vice-Admiral Roſenpalm is lately returned from Norway, where he has been above a Year liſting Seamen. He has engaged above 6000, of which 3000 have already ſerved at Sea; the reſt are Fiſhermen, and other young Men living on the Coaſts. Thoſe who have ſerved have a yearly Allowance, ſome of five Rixdollars, ſome four, and others two; the others have no Allowance: They are all at Liberty to employ themſelves as they will, only they are obliged on New-Years-Day to appear at certain Places where Officers are appointed to review them, which they muſt likewiſe do at any Time on three Months Warning. There are 3000 Men engaged in Jutland, and the Iſlands thereabouts, on the ſame foot; ſo that the King of Denmark is ſure of having 9000 Seamen when he will on three Months Warning at furtheſt, without the Trouble of ſending Officers to raiſe them, their Names and Places of Abode being regiſtred in a Book. A Frigate is gone to Stettin, to fetch hither M. Prætorius, who is charged with the Murther of Count Rantzau.

Berlin, Oct. 3, N. S. Captain Prætorius, who has been ſome time detained at Spandaw, being accuſed of having been acceſſory to the Murder of Count Rantzau in Denmark, is, at the Inſtance of the Envoy of Denmark, ſent this Day to Stettin under a ſtrong Guard, in order to be imbarked for Denmark, where he is to take his Tryal. All the Muſcovites who were in the King of Pruſſia's Service are upon their March to return to Muſcovy; and the like Number of Muſcovites are to be exchanged for them upon the Frontiers, to ſupply their Place in the reſpective Corps out of which they have been draſted. The King of Pruſſia is expected back from Wuſterhauſen towards the End of this Month.
